Snow Brings .75 of Inch Moisture

PANHANDLE IS COVERED WITH BLANKET SNOW

Winds Subside When Moisture Received Here

VEGETATION STARTS

Loss in Wheat Will Be Known in a Short Time

Rain and snow covered the Panhandle Monday, with the finest down-pour of moisture this section has received for the year.

In Canyon the moisture amounted to .75 of an inch. The moisture was slightly heavier to the south, but lighter to the west and north.

The rain started to fall before midnight Sunday and continued falling gently until near morning when snow started. The heavy fall continued until nearly noon, registering about six inches. A high wind from the north started in the early morning, drifting the snow in many places where there was smooth ground and nothing to hold the snow.

Prevailing high temperature caused the snow to melt almost as rapidly as it fell, every drop of the moisture going into the ground.

Moisture for January amounted to .61; for February, .43; this snow of .75, makes a total of 1.79 for a start for 1935. This amount is greater than fell up to the middle of March during either 1933 or 1934.

The winds of the past two weeks did much damage to the wheat, but the extent of damage may now be determined since the rain and snow will cause the wheat to start its growth. Various estimates have been made as to the percentage of the normal wheat acreage which still remains, but all estimates are considered unreliable until the wheat is given a chance to start growing. Some sections of the country was blown very badly by the high winds, while many farmers report that no particular damage had been done in their sections. The outcome of the wheat depends greatly upon the moisture which may be received during the coming two months.

Borger Boy Killed in Fall at Palo Duro State Park

Robert Mills, 14, was killed Saturday afternoon in a 78-foot fall at the Palo Duro State Park. His neck and back were broken in the fall.

The tragedy occurred while 150 high school students were on a day's trip, first visiting the Museum on the W. T. campus, and later going to the Park.

Owing to the heavily loaded busses, the drivers decided to let the students walk to the bottom of the Palo Duro. Young Mills and Keith Alexander decided to ascend the steep wall along the highway. Alexander successfully made the downward trip, reaching safely the roadbed. Mills started down, but slipped from the first rock, the force of the fall throwing him clear of the steep wall and he landed on the highway. He was rushed to the CCC camp, but was dead before medical aid could be of assistance. The sad group of students returned at once to their homes following this accident.

The death of young Mills makes the first fatal accident in the Palo Duro, although many have received severe bruises and broken bones in attempts to scale the rocky cliffs.

Good Weather Is Prevailing For Another Saturday

The weatherman was kind for another Saturday—the second in succession. While the crowd was not quite so large as the previous Saturday, it was possibly among the largest ever to assemble on the court house lawn during the afternoon.

Another big day is slated for the coming Saturday—in fact it promises to be larger than any witnessed in Canyon. The Wind has stopped, the snow and rain came, and folks are just naturally feeling a lot better than they have in the past.

The Chamber of Commerce and the 64 business and professional firms sponsoring the Saturday events are urging that all citizens be in Canyon Saturday for the big day.

Cowboys Nose Out Buffs; Teams To Play Again Tonite

The Buffs were defeated in the first game with Hardin-Simmons at Burton Gym last night, 41-38. The Buffs lead throughout the first half which ended 23 to 14.

The visitors got to going in the second period, and soon took the lead, ending the game with a three-point margin.

Inability to hit the basket was due to the loss of the Buffs. During the second period, the ball would simply not hit the basket for the Buffs, while the visitors were exceedingly accurate.

The two teams will play again tonight, and a capacity house is expected to see the game.

Mrs. Joe Gamble of Amarillo visited friends in Canyon Friday afternoon.

CONTRACT IS LET ERECTION OF DORMITORY

Lubbock Man Is Low Bidder For the Building

APPROVED WED.

Contract to Washington Before Work Starts

Bids were tabulated Tuesday on the dormitory for men on the campus of W. T. R. A. Stuart of Fort Worth and J. D. Jackson of Alpine, represented the Board of Regents here Tuesday, but the full board will meet next Wednesday in Fort Worth for the final award of the contract. However, the contract must be approved by PWA in Washington before work is started.

J. B. Maxey of Lubbock was the lowest of four general contractors, with a bid of $33,317.50. E. C. Vader of Clayton, N. M., was recommended for the heating and plumbing at the bid of $7,724.

PWA has allowed $47,000 for this project, including $5,000 for furniture. The bids received, together with the other necessary expenses will take practically all of this grant. PWA was represented by E. T. Wright and J. C. Kriz out of the Fort Worth office.

Mr. Maxey will not be able to start work on the building until final approval has been received from Washington.

Dr. J. A. Hill states that the bond transcript for the Home Economics demonstration cottage and the ten resident cottages will be signed by the board of regents next Wednesday. After this is done, these two projects will be in line for letting the contracts. The former is a $6,500 project, while the latter calls for $29,000.

The addition to Cousins Hall has passed the awards board, and is now awaiting the approval of legislation which has passed at the present session. If this bill of the legislature is approved at Washington, this project will be in line for a contract.

The fifth project, the athletic ground improvement and out-of-door swimming pool, has not passed the awards board being held up pending the legislative act. This is the only project which has an uncertainty of being finally approved and constructed, but, everything indicates to its final acceptance.

PRESIDENT OF P. T. A.

MRS. J. E. GRIGGS

President of 8th District will have charge of the gathering in Canyon, March 20, 21, 22.

Friday Last Day To Save Penalty Delinquent Taxes

March 15th—tomorrow—is the last day tax payers may take advantage of the remission of all penalty and interest on taxes which were delinquent for 1933 and for previous years.

Many citizens have taken advantage of the offer of the state and county to remit these costs by payment on or before March 15th. Others are expected to do so before the office of the tax collector closes Friday night.

Collections during February were better in Randall county than for the same period last year, which indicates that many tax payers have greatly benefitted by the offer made.

Mrs. Myrtle Stratton, representative of the Canyon Rebekah Lodge, will leave Sunday morning for Temple, where she will attend the annual Rebekah Assembly which convenes there from March 18-20.

R. W. Ratcliff of Pampa is visiting Mrs. Ratcliff here this week.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Griggs President of the Eighth District

Final arrangements are being made for the annual gathering of P. T. A. of the 8th District of Texas, which will be held in Canyon March 20, 21, and 22. The business program is printed in full in this issue of The News. Aside from the strictly business feature of this gathering, a number of interesting social features will be given honoring the visitors.

The College and the girls at Randall Hall will be hosts for the district board of managers the first day of the meeting. College girls will be hostesses at each table, and place cards and programs are being planned and made by them. Miss Elizabeth Jameson, home president, will preside.

The Home Demonstration clubs of Randall county and the Canyon Chamber of Commerce will give a courtesy banquet honoring all P. T. A. officials and delegates Wednesday night. Place cards and programs will be hand painted, featuring the Palo Duro State Park, with color scheme and decorations to correspond. "Crossing the Chasm" will be the theme of the banquet.

Thursday afternoon a tea will be served at the Museum by the Woman's Book Club and the Junior Women's Club, with their presidents, Mrs. Ray Campbell and Mrs. W. E. Miller, as joint hostesses. Visitors will be given an opportunity to inspect the exhibits of the Museum. The W. T. orchestra will play, and an art exhibit will be furnished by the Art Department of W. T.

Friday noon a health luncheon will be served at the Methodist church with a charge of 50 cents. The theme and decorations will be in the nature of the round-up, and the yearly summer round-up of the P. T. A. will be featured. Blue and Gold will be the decorations.

The final light plate lunch will be served at the church Friday night for those who remain over to attend the night meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education.

Two hundred and fifty delegates are expected for this gathering, and rooms have been provided for this number through the housing committee, Mrs. Hud Prichard, chairman.

Unique Exhibit School Work Next Tuesday

School Exhibit Will be Opened on Next Tuesday

A very unique and interesting school exhibit will be presented by the Canyon Public Schools Tuesday evening, March 19. The program for the evening will open in the high school auditorium at 7:30, where short explanations will be made by various teachers, concerning the nature and plan of exhibits. This introductory program is a new plan that will be used to assist the visitors to better understand the school work presented by the different grades.

Much of the grade work is unique because of the purpose and method of its organization. The unit-activity plan of teaching has been used effectively by several teachers in carrying on purposeful learning activities based, as far as possible, upon life like situations.

In order that a brief review of the exhibits may be had, the following summary is given.

The first grades exhibit grew out of the following units of work: Farm Life, Community Helpers, First Grade Library, and the Study of Birds. There will be a display of a real farm, with other farm buildings. There will be a floor display of a city street showing the places of labor of the community helpers such as the fire station, bakery, bank, grocery store, the offices of a doctor and dentist, shoe shop and drug store. One of the most interesting exhibits is a library where the children get real pleasure from doing independent reading. There will be a display of bird houses, and free hand drawing of birds. In addition to the construction work growing out of these units, many booklets, posters, and other art work materials will be shown.

A visit to the second grade room will show development of many interesting units of work. The first unit of the year was a brief study of the circus following a visit to a real circus in Amarillo. Booklets of wild animals and a moving picture of a circus were the main outgrowths of this study. An interest in Indians was aroused by Columbus Day celebrations. Indian stories were dramatized and given in connection with the Thanksgiving program. The children made their own costumes, wigwams, bows and arrows, tomtoms, papoose cradles, and pottery which were used in the play. All of these may be seen in this exhibit. In addition many posters and booklets dealing with this subject will be shown. Another feature of this exhibit is the replica of a dairy, composed of the dairy barn, which includes the milking barn, cooling and capping room, the feed room, calf-shed, cow lot, windmill and high tanks. Charts composed by the children tell the complete history of the dairying process. Other outcomes were booklets, which told of the visit, health booklets, interesting posters, and poems. Some of these poems were set to music by the children and their music teacher. After a visit to the elevator and bakery a study of the products used by these two concerns made which resulted in the planting of a wheat field, the building of an elevator, and the making of a series of charts which told the whole story of a loaf of bread.

The third grade exhibit will consist of work done while studying three major units of work which which have been completed. The first of these units is on the American Indian. This led to the study of the Pilgrims, their relations with the early Indians, and finally to study of our present-day relations with the Indians. The most intensive study was made of our neighboring Indians in New Mexico, the Navajo. Stories, booklets, costumes, original poems, and a small classroom museum developed from this study and this may be seen in the third grade room. The second unit was on the Eskimo. A study of the "Value of Alaska to the United States" was completed, and a small northern village illustrating some parts of the extreme northern life will be shown on the table display.

The following units have been covered in both sections of the fourth grade: Indians, Transportation, Health, Fire Prevention, and the Lives of Foreign People. Of special interest will be a Navajo hogan, sand painting, trading post, and Indian booklets. The display for the Transportation Unit consists of ships, airplanes, hangars, illustrated booklets, and free hand drawings.

The intermediate exhibits will be arranged by subjects.

The English exhibit consists of booklets, illustrated themes and letters, and posters, which grew out of the work done by a Travel Club in the sixth grade. This grade also has some interesting posters on the lives of great men. The fifth grade exhibit consists mainly of posters, which illustrated different stories, both original and traditional, and booklet and posters illustrating different rules of grammar. A collection of original poems by the fifth grade is interesting. The study of a unit on accidents resulted in effective Safety First posters, made by the seventh grade. Posters, themes, and booklets illustrate the use of good English.

Reading classes have interesting posters and booklets of favorite books. There are some exhibits,

PANHANDLE MEMBER 1933 PRESS ASSOCIATION

Governor Allred struck a snag with the legislature in his proposal for additional taxes. In fact, most governors tamper with fire when they suggest to the legislature that additional taxes be imposed. The rule in recent years is to abolish tax returns rather than increase any of them. The overwhelming defeat of the Governor's proposal in the Committee to increase the sulphur tax was taken with bitterness on the part of the Chief Executive. As was to be expected, he had his way about a sales tax since both the Governor and a majority of the legislature were elected in platforms opposing this kind of tax. The other special taxes which the Governor submitted have yet to be heard by the legislature but the prediction is that they likewise will be defeated. If the $3,000 exemption of homesteads is submitted it will be approved by the people, and will close all of the small schools of the state unless the legislature is willing to raise money by some other means than the property tax. The governor has issued a statement severely criticising the legislature, which is a bad way for any Governor to get what he is after. With half of the legislative session passed, busy days must be ahead in Austin if the Governor's program is accomplished in this session of the legislature. The major bills are yet to be acted upon.

Huey Long is on the war path in a big way up at Washington. He is doing everything in his power to throw obstacles in the path of the President, and the program of the President. Fortunately for the nation the influence of Long in the Senate is very small; unfortunately for the nation, the influence of Long outside of the Senate is rather large, and is increasing as the firy senator attacks the administration. Unfortunately those who are deluded into following Huey are unable to think straight in their turbulent times, and are largely among those who believe in the soundness of the Townsend pension, and those who believe that wealth should be divided. Unfortunately for these followers, both of these will never be accomplished, yet they are providing a vehicle upon which Huey is attempting to ride into something bigger—possibly the presidency. The Republicans may pick up Huey as a last resort, not because they like him or his program, but because he is lambasting the Roosevelt administration. The truthfulness of his statements, or the unsoundness of his proposals do not bother Long—just so the populace respond to his antics. Such a man is usually of short duration in the public eye, but their influence is very destructive while they are in power.

It is almost certain that the people of Texas will vote on the repeal of constitutional prohibition in August of this year. This means that more than one-fourth of the qualified voters will not be able to express their opinion on this question since the poll tax payments are short this year. This is unfortunate. Prohibition was voted under similar conditions and the charge was made that barely a majority of the voters had a chance to express their opinion. The same will be true this year, regardless of the outcome, both sides claiming that the election does not fully express the prevailing opinion of a majority. Seekers of public office are afraid to carry the issue into 1936 when the primary will be held, and all candidates would be forced to express their opinion. During this summer you will hear a lot of facts, and misstatement of facts both pro and con on the prohibition question.

All sound economics are forgotten in these hectic days as all sorts of quacks present their ideas of immediate recovery. Print up a batch of money and hand it to the people in all sorts of forms is the prevailing idea; excessive pensions; remission of taxes; spend, spend, spend—on the part of the government; piling up debts, larger and larger; it is no wonder that those who have never thought of sound economic procedures are so easily deceived by the economic quacks. Those who claim that the Lord has given them the only sensible idea are usually those who have never made a success for themselves, yet are telling the government just how the thing should be done. Reminds us of the old sign in the barber shop: "If you are so damn smart, why are you not rich?" Hard work, sane and sensible living, for both the individuals and the government is the only sound program for recovery.

Farmers who were missed in this year's farm census should report the fact at once to the office of the Chamber of Commerce. After the appeal of last week, a number of farmers and farm operators have reported that they had been missed. A check up must be made at once in order that the work in the county be finished without delay. Charles C. Gibson, supervisor of this district, is holding open the census report in this county until it is found that all farmers have been properly listed. The farm program for the county during the coming five years will no doubt depend very largely upon the result of this census.

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes left a large part of his estate to the United States government. During his life, the government was kind to the man who in turn honored the government with all of his ability. He lived for his government, honored it by giving it all of his ability. In death, he returned to the government the funds which he had found unnecessary to spend for the comforts of a frugally spent life. Other citizens may draw many a fine example from the useful life of Judge Holmes, giving rather than merely receiving.

Bills in the legislature would greatly increase the tuition in state colleges. The idea back of all this is to exclude from the benefits of a college education thousands of poor boys and girls who cannot afford to attend colleges with high tuition rates—just the sort of boys and girls who make the most of their college career, and who return to the state the greatest benefits once given the opportunity of a college education.

Nothing could have been finer than the splendid snow and rain of Monday—unless it be two snows. The moisture will be of untold benefit to the country, and is the first general soaking that has been received by all the Plains. That the wheat has greatly suffered by the continued winds, no one denies, but this splendid snow will make a great deal more wheat in the county than has been estimated if only the spring moisture is up to normal.

If you have not enjoyed the dusters during the past two weeks, just cuss John McCarty of the Dalhart Texan. After the first day's blow, John wrote a piece for his paper using all kinds of high-falutin' words in praise of the dust storm. Dame Nature became so swelled up over John's compliments that it took two weeks to quit blowing over what she could do.

Tomorrow is the last day that delinquent taxes may be paid and have all penalties remitted. Statements have been mailed to every property owner who has delinquent taxes, and it is hoped that much of these delinquencies may be paid off since the penalties go back on March 16th.

The best mathematics we know is multiplying the joys, dividing the sorrows and adding to the happiness of others.

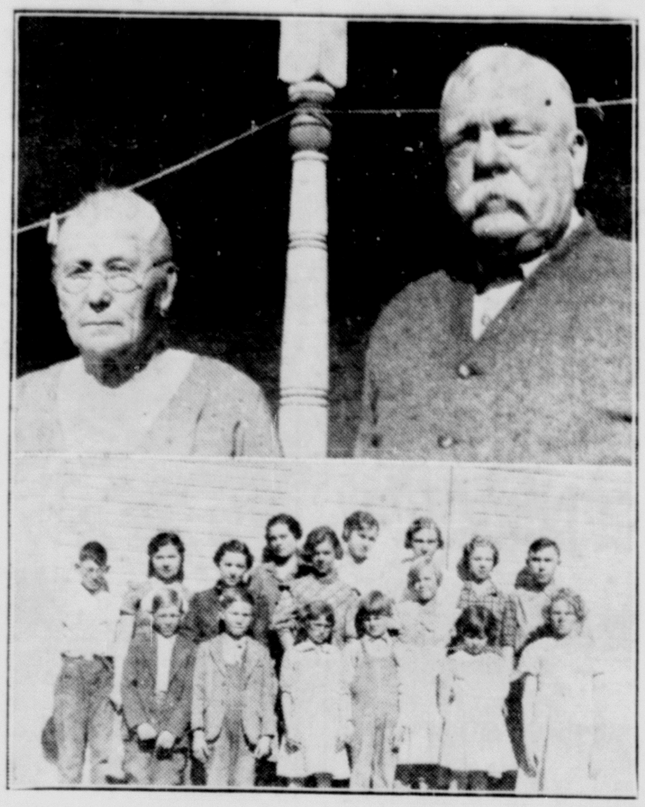
Randall County Couple Grandparents of Entire School of 16 Students



At the top are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bauer of Randall County. Below them are shown 16 of their 30 grandchildren, all of whom are pupils in the Johnson School, rural district. At one time 20 of the Bauer grandchildren were pupils in the school. The name, neighbors contend, is a misnomer and should be "Bauer School."

Every one of 16 pupils in Johnson school, Randall County Rural District, No. 16, is a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bauer, residents of this county for 26 years.

The Bauers are the parents of 10 children, five boys and five girls, and the grandparents of 30 children altogether. At one time 20 of these grandchildren were pupils in the Johnson school.

The school was originally on property belonging to a man named Johnson, but it was moved to Bauer-owned land several years ago.

"The name should be changed and it should be called 'Bauer School,'" neighbors have since averred.

All the Bauer children live in this section. The elder Mr. Bauer has been a Randall County commissioner for the last 20 years and was a member of the commissioners' court in Nebraska before moving to Texas. Both Mr and Mrs. Bauer were born in Nebraska 68 years ago.

Buff Basketeers Dinner Guests Of Cliff Jarrett

Tuesday night the 1935 basketball team of the West Texas State Teachers College were guests of Cliff Jarrett at a hunter's supper at the Jarrett home.

Mr. Jarrett is president of the Canyon Athletic Club and one of the most enthusiastic citizens of Canyon in support of the Buffaloes.

He wished to give the hunters' supper of a variety of wild fowls to Buffaloes as a personal expression of his appreciation of the success of the Buffaloes on the gym floor this year, and especially their double defeat of Texas Tech.

Gillis Will Build New Type Cases

J. A. Gillis, of the Woodworking Department, is beginning work this week on two new cases for the museum.

One of the cases is to be used to display elephant fossils such as jaws, teeth, and leg-bones. It will be on a different plan from most of the cases already in the museum as it is to have three sides enclosed by glass, while the back will be covered with a painting showing the elephants as they were in the days when they inhabited this country.

The other case will contain basketry and is to be upright, two feet wide, ten feet long, and seven and one-half feet high. Mr. Gillis hopes to have this case finished when the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society meets in April.

Home Ec. Majors To Cook For Western Tour

Fannie Mae Rees, Home Economics major who will graduate here this year, has been selected from a lengthy list of applicants for the position as one of the cooks for the Educational Tour being sponsored by Frank R. Phillips, head of the Agriculture Department.

WHY PAINT YOUR HOME SO OFTEN?

Perhaps that question does seem strange, coming from a paint dealer. Nevertheless, we know that you won't have to paint so often if you use LOWE BROTHERS HIGH STANDARD House Paint. For HIGH STANDARD is a paint that stays new and bright much longer than paints of inferior quality which can be bought at lower price.

And of course, a paint that stays nice for an extra number of years, cuts many dollars from the per year cost of a paint job.

Come in, and let us give you a free copy of LOWE BROTHERS instructive book, "101 Questions About Painting and Decorating."

SCHEDULE OF WEEK FOR SADIE KATE BASS

Monday, March 18, Office.

Tuesday, March 19, Hyland Home Demonstration Club.

Wednesday, March 20, Jowell 4-H Club, morning; Jowell Home Demonstration Club, afternoon.

Thursday, March 21, Johnson 4-H Club, 1 p. m.; Fairview 4-H Club 10 a. m.

Friday, March 22, Mattress making at the home of Mrs. E. J. Bauer, 9 a. m.

Saturday, March 23, Council.

Since plackets are seldom ornamental, they should be made just large enough to allow the garment to be slipped over the body easily, was a fact mentioned by Miss Sadie Kate Bass, County Home Demonstration Agent to the Lake Side Home Demonstration Club at the home of Mrs. Roy Campbell, March 6th.

Miss Bass stated that a placket for the side of a dress or skirt must have two parts: an overlap and an underlap. The overlap is a facing or hem that completely covers the underlap when fastened. The underlap is an extension of cloth always of the same material as the rest of the garment to prevent the opening from being conspicuous.

Miss Sadie Kate Bass, county home demonstrator, told the Edgetown Home Demonstration Club that the proper way to lap a placket in a man's garment is left side over right and in a woman's garment ride side over left. This was only one of the many suggestions in garment finishes given by Miss Bass in a demonstration at the home of Mrs. G. H. Hardman, March 8th.

Ordinarily, in a child's garment the placket is lapped either way. Usually a placket is an opening made not for show, but for convenience.

Visitors were Mrs. E. Bean, Mrs. Hersey Williams and Miss Bass. Members present were Mrs. John T. Ballengee, Miss Mable Solomon, Mrs. O. M. Solomon, Mrs. F. M. Brazil, Mrs. Carl Wesley, Mrs. W. T. PRESBYTERIAN MEN TURN COOKS FOR ONE NIGHT

The men of the Presbyterian Church decided to show the ladies just how a meal should be cooked and served Monday night, when they took charge of the kitchen in the basement of the church and served the ladies and children a real feed.

The menu consisted of "son-of-a-gun" stew, Virginia baked ham, baked beans, hot rolls, coffee, hot chocolate, ice cream and cakes.

Only a few things were broken, and "a good time was had by all." But the men decided that the toast to the ladies is right: "The ladies, you can't live with 'em, and you can't live without 'em," meaning of course, that the men had had enough kitchen service to last for a while.

Summer Bill For the State Colleges Passes In Senate

Approval of the summer school bill for 1935 was given Tuesday in the Senate. The bill provides for a continuation of regular salaries of teachers through the summer months. Owing to the limited appropriation allowed in years past, summer salaries have been greatly reduced.

The Senate approved $21,140 for W. T. for this summer.

The House has not acted upon the summer appropriation bill as yet, but the appropriations committee has recommended the same amounts as allowed last year, or $12,600 for W. T.

MAVERICK CLUB

NUMBER TWO
Canyon, Texas

By Pat Noser

Well, we didn't go to Amarillo after all. We sure do rate though. The Governor of the State of Texas came right to our own home town to speak to us. He's a pretty good guy.

All of us Mavericks are working out every day under the instruction of some of the boxers and wrestlers of West Texas State Teachers College. We will have the tryouts tomorrow to see who will compete against the boxers and wrestlers of the Amarillo Maverick Club.

Say, we sure did enjoy those handball games we played yesterday on the new handball court in Burton gym. We are just learning how, but pretty soon we're going to challenge the Amarillo Maverick Club to a handball contest. I bet we can beat them at that too, although they have already been playing some. They are having a tournament up there now.

I hope the Maverick Club beats them, but I wonder if they remember a night not very long ago when the Canyon Maverick basketball team beat their team. But we don't like to throw bouquets.

There is just so many things to do, games to play, etc. in Burton Gym that we can't all get around to all of them. But we are sure having a good time since the club was organized. We just meet three days a week now, but as soon as basketball season is over (which won't be long) we will have regular meetings every day. And that swimming pool will soon be ready. Next week.

Friday night we saw the dual boxing and wrestling meet between the Buffaloes and the Texas Tech teams as the guest of Coach Baggett. And did we enjoy it. The way those Buff fighters knocked their men out. We got a few pointers and tonight remember that we want to all be out in full force to see our boys do the same to the boys of the Maverick Club in Amarillo that the Buffs did to Tech.

Buffs Win In Wrestling And Fight From Tech

Friday night in Burton Gym the boxing and wrestling teams of West Texas State Teachers College gained some measure of revenge by defeating the mat and glove artists of Texas Tech with a point advantage of 21 to 19.

In a former meet in Lubbock the Matadors nosed out the Buffaloes. Friday night the Buffaloes gained the advantage by taking five boxing matches to three for Tech. The wrestling was even with both teams taking four matches, two each by decisions and two by falls.

Wendell Cain started the meet off right for West Texas by gaining a technical knockout over Brasher of Tech in the third round of the 118-pound division.

Small Decisionss All-Star

Ray Small, meeting a former high school all-state champion for two years in Oklahoma in Eugene Palmer of Tech, won a decision in an extra period by some clever wrestling.

In the third event, Gerald Brown, 128-pound boxer of West Texas, won a technical knockout over Paul Gibbs of Tech in the second round.

John Morris, representing West Texas in the 138-pound class, met one of Tech's best men in Watkins, and had to exhibit a lot of skill to escape from being pinned. Watkins won the decision.

Red Holston of West Texas made a good showing in the first round against Nichols of Tech in 138-pound boxing, but appeared exhausted in the last two rounds to drop the decision.

Wooten Pins White

Brady McCoy fought Odis Cannon of Tech three furious rounds in the 145-pound division to drop the decision by a narrow margin.

Tech forfeited the 155-pound boxing to McCarty of West Texas. George Caviness met Jake May, Tech wrestling coach, in a strong match, but after putting up a strong resistance was pinned in the last part of the match.

Cain K. O.'s McElroy

Clinton Meek had Williams of Tech groggy in the heavyweight fight, but was unable to finish him. Meek won the decision.

Sanderson Outweighed

Gardner Sanderson, normally 175-pound regular matman for West Texas, entered the heavyweight division because Leo Jackson, Buff heavyweight, was out with an injured back. Sanderson found the 220 pounds of Browning of Tech too much of a handicap and lost a decision.

At this juncture, the standing for the meet was 19 points for Tech and 18 for West Texas. With the outcome of the meet depending on their wrestling match, Gerald Brown for the Buffaloes and Jack Fann of the Raiders wrestled six fast minutes. Neither was able to gain a fall. Brown of the Buffs had sufficient time advantage to win the match, giving the meet to West Texas by a count of 21 to 19.

Home Beckons Eskimos' 'Santy'

A modest little Laplander, Andy Bahr, above, is homeward-bound after completing one of the biggest, most unusual "jobs" in modern history. A little more than five years ago, Andy and six helpers started from Elephant Point, Alaska, to herd 3000-odd reindeer over the Arctic barrens to the Mackenzie river district, 1200 miles away, along the route shown in the map. The animals were to form the nucleus for future herds, to furnish food and transportation to starving, sealless Eskimos. Hazards of the Alaskan trek took a toll of 1400 reindeer before Andy arrived at his goal.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 9 CANYON, TEXAS, MARCH 14, 1935. NUMBER 26

Jumpin' jackrabbits! Was I embarrassed Thursday when I looked in the chapel doors and saw Bill Cone, Kenneth Cayton, O. M. Solomon, Gladys McBride and some more runnin' around the stage in night gowns. I just thought maybe they wuz dramatizin' to go to bed because some of these high fallutin' students must not know how, then I looked closer and if there weren't Hampton Lisle kinda tottering around; then if the stage door didn't fly open and out stalked Robert Orton and Skeeter Wirt looking like Arabian shieks. Robert began a-yellin' "Murder! Our royal master's been murdered!" I was so scared he meant Mr. Carruth I just ran away quick to see. Somebody told me today it was the senior class dramatizing the drunken porter scene and some others of Shakespeare's Macbeth.

I just heard the rollicanist bit of news. Canyon High has two new offsprings. Mrs. Tyson Cox (to us, Gailen Porter) is the proud mother of a baby girl, and Mrs. Estelle Foster (Jean Burgess) is the proud mother of a baby boy.

I believe this school oughta start ye ole fashioned spelling bee. I was looking over Barnett Ball's shoulder the other day and saw skeleton spelled "sceletaine."

I just think Betty Ruth has gone off in the upper heights (and I don't mean up in an airplane like that one that was landed near the school house, Saturday.) She translated a sentence in Spanish to mean, "The princess fell out of a tree," when it really was "the princess saw the fall," but I don't suppose you ever know where you'll end up in Spanish.

REMEMBER THE JANITOR

Considering the amount of dirt that has been blown recently, the building has been very clean. Did you put the praise in the correct place?

Teachers, athletes, and librarians gain their praise, but—isn't there one that is often thought of as just a fixture of the building?

Our janitor deserves more praise for his care of the building during the sandstorms we've just had! No matter if the day is warm, cold, windy, or dusty, he still keeps the building in order. Praise whom you will, but—remember the janitor.

THINK OF OTHERS ALSO

Ten classes ended five minutes before they should have, and the students of the high school lost approximately 15 hours of study. One person failed to think; 189 suffered the consequences.

FOOTBALL TRAINING OPENS FOR SPRING SEASON

TO WORK ON FUNDAMENTALS; EXPECT STRONGER COMPETITION NEXT SEASON

The fundamentals and tactics of the game will be drilled during the spring training, according to Coach Jones. "Stronger competition will be afforded the Eagles next year," says the Eagle mentor, which will afford harder work.

Coach Sanders says, "I believe we will have a very successful ball club next year and expect to go places in the district."

Coach Jones urges all boys to come out, because it will help them a great deal next year. Hampton Lisle, '34 quarterback, says, "Spring training will improve the good material that Canyon High has for next year."

Captain Curtis Ellison of the '34 team says, "I have enjoyed playing football for C. H. S. very much and hope to see the Eagles cop the crown next year, and I'm sure they will."

The captain-elect, Wesley Cox, also hopes to see a championship team from the Eagles. "I believe the boys will co-operate next year and am sure we will go somewhere.

The manager of last year, Bud Meyers, who probably knows as much about the team as any one, remarked, "I thing the Eagle team will be a 'dilly' next year."

Canyon Debaters To Borger; Will Entertain Pampa

The Canyon debaters will be hosts of the Borger debaters tonight and will entertain the Pampa debaters here Friday evening.

The Canyon boys and girls went to Pampa, March 5, and won the decision in both debates. The Canyon boys were defeated by the Borger boys in the Amarillo Tournament, but the Canyon and Borger girls have never met.

The debaters are in readiness for the District Tournament at Amarillo, April 12 and 13.

The public is invited to come and hear the debates tonight and tomorrow night. They will begin at 8:00 o'clock.

All the students who did not take acting parts, helped with the costumes. Chris Wooten was stage manager.

High School Boys Parade For Allred

"Why are so many boys wearing National Guard uniforms this morning," was the question asked by students of the high school Thursday morning, March 5.

By order of Colonel C. W. Nimon, the National Guard of Canyon was commanded to march in the Mothers-in-law parade in Amarillo. The boys of the high school who are in the National Guard, wore their uniforms in preparedness to leave at 12:30.

Those from the high school who marched with the National Guard were: Bud Myers, Roland Black, O. M. Solomon, Willard Childress, Billy Bewley, Benson Clounch, Herbert Mariner, and Jackie Pitts.

Ruth McCrerey was shopping in Amarillo Saturday.

DENTAL SURGEON

Eleventh Century Actors; Cave Man

"Hail, King of Scotland, for so thou art," cried the brave knights to the king, portrayed by Jackie Pitts who looked more like a cave-man in his shorts with a shawl over his shoulder, than an Eleventh Century king.

Macbeth's "war-like shield" was made of cardboard, and that may be the reason that he lost his head in the sword fight with Macduff.

While viewing the first scene given, if one had not been informed, he would have thought he was viewing a slumber party instead of a scene from Shakespeare's "Macbeth."

The seniors must not have been able to find enough costumes for the characters, because in this special scene, the "knights" were gowned in "night" gowns. The ruffled night caps were becoming to some of the characters and especially to Bill Cone. Another example of artful costuming was the black bloomers worn by the murderers.

Grades Will Hold Contest Today In Jr. Declamation

Thirty-eight grade school students will participate in the preliminary try-out for the Interscholastic League Declamation contest this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BUSSES DELAYED MONDAY

Because of the snow Monday, two school busses were delayed, not arriving until after three o'clock in the afternoon, and the other, though attempting the route, stuck in the mud about seven miles south of town and had to be towed into Canyon by the wrecker.

The children that had been picked up by the busses before they were stuck and delayed, were returned to their homes. The busses came back to the high school to take back to their homes any children whose parents might have brought them to school.

All Intramural Team
—Selected by C. C. Jones.
C. L. Drummond, Soph, forward.
Bud Myers, Senior, forward.
R. F. Rusk, Soph, center.
W. Childers, Soph, guard.
Wade Johnson, Senior, guard.

The tournament was played on the double elimination basis. To determine who was to play in the finals the following games were played.

Juniors vs. sophs; sophs won. Freshmen vs. 7th grade; 7th won. Sophs vs. seniors; sophs won. Fish vs. juniors; juniors won. Seniors vs. juniors; seniors won. Sophs vs. 7th grade; sophs won. Seniors vs. 7th grade; seniors won. Sophs vs. seniors; sophs won.

The last game played by the seniors and sophs was close thruout. There were never more than four points difference in the scores. Wooten, senior guard, fouled out just before the end of the first half; Cayton, substitute guard, guard, went in at this time for the remainder of the game. At the close of the first half the score stood 9 to 6 in favor of the sophs.

Early in the third quarter Cecil O'Donald, senior guard, made a spectacular shot and brought the seniors' score within one point of their opponents' score. But before this period ended the sophs had acquired a four-point lead.

In the fourth period the seniors tied the score. There was only four minutes left to play, and try as they did, neither side was able to place the ball. There was only one minute left to play when the Sophs chalked up their two-point lead with which they won their second intramural tournament.

Childers, soph guard, was awarded scoring honors with a total of 7 points. The 6 free tosses he tried for accounted for 5 of these 7 points.

Receive Trophy

The intramural championship trophy was received Monday by Superintendent I. B. Carruth.

The trophy is a bronze statue of a basketeer in the act of throwing a goal. The statue is standing on a round pedestal. Engraved on the pedestal is "Sophomores '35 Intramural."

Dixson Addresses Faculty Thursday; Field Man Speaks

Bryan Dixson, Deputy State Superintendent, addressed the Faculty Study Club Thursday, on the subject of "Organization for Statewide Curriculum Revision." H. A. Finch, field man for curriculum revision, continued the discussion on "Historical Survey of Curriculum." The group was open for round table discussion before the main speeches.

In his introduction, Mr. Dixson gave the teacher's part in curriculum revision, "Frankly I think we are not going to revolutionize the public school system in the United States," but he explained that through a detailed study of this subject "We are going to grow professionally as school teachers."

Mr. Finch continued this train of thought with "This work is a challenge for us, a movement in which you, I, and all of us may take a part." He suggested the adoption of a practical curriculum, in which the pupil will have a big part. In the future it will be the adaptation of the curriculum to the child and not the child to the curriculum.

Mr. Finch closed the discussion with an historical outline of education and a list of ten books for curriculum research. His outline of education was divided into five periods: Transplantive, Transition, National Development, Reorganization, Revitalization.

A magazine rapidly gaining in popularity is The Reader's Digest which has summary articles from other magazines.

"Extra, Extra" Is Received

"Extra, Extra," Henry Justin Smith's book containing the two novels, "Deadlines" and "Josslyn" was presented to the Journalism students for perusal and study last week. "Extra, Extra" has been adopted as required reading in a number of Universities and Journalism Schools.

The author, Henry J. Smith, has become fully acquainted with the newspaper work as a reporter, editor, and foreign correspondent. Smith's numerous writings have been of a startlingly varied nature from a history of Chicago to juvenile books.

His book, "Deadlines" has been extremely widely read. To the author's surprise, it was even issued by the Soviet government as an "expose of the American capitalistic press." Another critic, Ben Hecht, in the Chicago Literary Times, comments concerning "Josslyn": "He (Josslyn) is a product neither of his nor any other age. He is not the aesthetic Don Quixote of the modernistic fictions, nor the embattled Galahad of the Get-Thee-Behind-Me-Satan school. In fact, I'll be damned if I know what he is, except that his reality is as poignant as a Chopin piece played in the rain."

STUDENTS HEAR ALLRED'S SPEECH AT COLLEGE

The three school busses took students of both schools to the college to hear Governor James V. Allred speak during his brief visit in Canyon, March 5th.

He displayed some sugar beets that he uses for cow and chicken feed. He had them stacked and covered with dirt; they were still firm.

Mr. Coleman has about two acres that are irrigated by five wells. He showed the students a bear hide and several wolf hides. He told the class that he cured these and made rugs from them.

Terrill Sends Wood To Be Used In Centennial Table

H. H. Wright, of the Manual Arts Department of Reagan Senior High School at Houston, recently wrote to R. A. Terrill, head of the Manual Arts Department here requesting pieces of wood from the old T-Anchor Ranch, the Goodnight Camp, MacKenzie battlefield, and the old Drift Line Fence.

He is working on a project for the Texas Centennial which is to be a Texas Centennial table. The table will be constructed by the boys in Mr. Wright's woodworking class and is to have an inlaid top showing each county of Texas. It is the plan for the wood used in representing the county on the table to be taken from some historic object or building in the county.

In the center of the table will be a map of the State of Texas and also an explanatory key telling the history of wood used to represent each county.

Mr. Terrill is sending wood from the places as requested by Mr. Wright and along with it a brief history concerning them.

Recently, Mr. Wright and his class completed an inlaid table containing 22,168 separate pieces of wood which came from every civilized country in the world and many that are not civilized.

W. T. Aggies To Judge Stock In Fort Worth

Having spent two days last week, Monday and Tuesday, in Amarillo practicing livestock judging at the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, the judging team composed of Edward Devin, Tulia, and George Smith and Dean Story, Hereford, will leave Thursday for the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show where they will represent the Agriculture Department of West Texas State Teachers College.

The team will be thrown in competition with teams from other teachers colleges and from junior A. & M. colleges.

The boys are leaving a few days early in order to do practice judging at various points en route to Fort Worth. In the contest at the Fat Stock Show, they will judge meat and dairy types of cattle, as well as sheep and hogs.

In accordance with the rules for judging livestock, contestants must first place the animals judged in the order in which they think they should be ranked. Then, each contestant must appear before the judges of the contest and in the space of two minutes, give his reasons for placing the animals in the order that he did.

In recent years, a team representing this college not only won the contest at Ft. Worth, but one of the boys on the team succeeded in winning a third of the prize-money himself.

H. S. Seniors Present Play

A few loose horse hairs in a sack of meal start the Bevins and Gaddis feud and form the basis of the plot of "Moonshine and Honeysuckle," the W. T. High School play which is to be presented in the auditorium of the Education Building Friday evening, March 15th.

Rich home-spun philosophy, comedy, and romance fill the story of Clem Betts (Irving Willoughby) who strives to bring harmony into the hostile valley below Lonesome Mountain. Although in love with Annie Bevins, who is played by Ruth Baker, when he learns that she cares more for Buck Gaddis, (Joe McDonald), he immediately lends his aid to the Romeo-and-Juliet romance of the backwoods. Clem's heart, which he insists is dead and which he mournfully buries several times, takes a new lease on life when Cracker Gaddis (Pat Patterson) pops in from "over yonder," to exercise her trigger-finger. Taming this little shrew occupies Clem's time when he isn't playing Cupid for Annie and Buck. The feud is finally ended but not until after the trial of Peg-leg Gaddis, Lucius Pennick of course, who is charged by Malcolm-Jest-Call-Me-Judge-Bull, with disturbing public worship when he rode a mule into church and "shot up" the wedding of his son.

Other characters in the play are Piney Hyatt, Mary McCaslin, who is determined to get married; Leo Duflot, the Peddler, who proves to be the answer to Piney's prayers; Helene Oliver, alias Gypsy Carter, who bootlegs moonshine to Tom Bevins (Alton Paul in real life); Pink Freeze, Raymond Cheves, who has marital troubles; and Maw and Paw Betts, Mary Harman and Bomar Brown who are parents of the leading man.

Practically every element appealing to mankind is found in the three-act play—romance, humor and even actual gun-fighting.

The play will begin promptly at 8 p. m. and admission prices are only 25 cents. Tickets are available from any of the high school seniors, and will be sold in the hall of the Administration Building Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Don't miss "Moonshine and Honeysuckle."

Buffaloes Will Play at Denver In Tournament

Next Saturday morning the West Texas State Teachers College Buffaloes will leave for Denver to participate in the National Basketball Tournament.

There has been much said for a long time about the possibility of the Buffaloes entering the tournament, but financial problems made it uncertain for a time, if the budget would stand the expense.

But this is the official announcement that the Buffs will compete at Denver. The record of the Buffaloes establishes them as one of the outstanding college teams in the entire country.

At Denver the college teams will be competing with the other amateur teams. It is planned at a later date to divide the tournament. Sul Ross, Panhandle A. & M., New Mexico Normal and many others are entered.

The greatest advantage that will come to the Buffaloes will be the experience and more modern ideas that will come from participating in any witnessing the play of the greatest men in the game.

Every man on the Buffalo team except John Walker and Leonard Britt will be eligible next year, and should be greatly improved because of the Denver tournament.

You are entitled to all that you can get in this world, provided you get only that to which you are entitled to.

Mr. Stuart is a member of the Housing commission in Texas, which is seeking to loan forty-one million dollars of private capital to people to either improve or build homes. The plan is to make people home owners rather than tennants. He described his work, and the success that was being met.

Twenty visitors were present: Mr. Stuart and Mr. Jackson; Jack Harris, Rockmer Cloud, H. B. Lautz, R. P. Parcell, Carl Makeig, R. E. Wertz, Jim Williams, Sam Sullinger, F. A. Zimpfer, C. T. Crowe, J. Officers of the Cemetery Association met Saturday and found that $173 in cash had been collected of the $350 necessary to put down the well and equip it with a windmill and tank. Other donations have been pledged, but not paid. Several committees have not reported. The officers hope that all committees will report this week so that the improvements may be started at once.

Farm Census Being Checked to Get All the Missing

J. H. Cox, Jr., J. P. Hix and Clyde Warwick conferred with Chas. C. Gibson in Amarillo Monday afternoon regarding the census. Mr. Gibson will hold open the final report on Randall county until it is assured that all farm operators have been listed in this census.

A DROP IN THE BUCKET

Exhibits

based on material read, which will equal Ripley's "Believe It or Not" because of the interesting things learned.

One of the interesting features of our music work is the Walter Damrosch radio programs. In connection with this program the children used the National Broadcasting Music Appreciation notebooks. These will be on display in the music room.

The arithmetic exhibit promises to be one of the most unusual shown. Instead of the usual arithmetic papers and booklets, there will be on display many projects worked out by the various classes. One of the most attractive projects is that of a farm. The purpose of this project was to teach areas, volumes, and surfaces of cylinders. The farm consists of fields, water tanks, silos, standpipes, and other farm buildings. Back of this project will be shown charts which show the processes in arithmetic which were used in developing this unit. Posters illustrating the Pythagorean theorem are on display. Booklets on investments, banking, insurance, and taxes have been compiled. Other booklets show problems which have been illustrated by colored pictures cut from magazines.

In the geography room are three sand table projects on Africa, salt maps of the Scandinavian countries, booklets of trips into New England states, themes on journeys into the Sahara Desert, various climatic maps, free hand posters of Oberanmergau, Germany, political maps, and weapons used in South American countries.

The history exhibit will be composed of notebooks, posters of various historical events, cartoons, maps, time charts, projects which show Southern plantations, old fashioned transportation, soap carvings, colonial furniture in wood, and various other historical subjects.

In the science department individual student projects in the laboratory range from collections of stones and minerals to the petroleum products. In the chemistry class will be seen results of individual projects where ink, soap, metal alloys, alcohol, dye, photographic film, glass, and other products have been made.

The manual training department will display hand-made projects consisting of book racks, foot stools, card files, magazine racks, radio tables, davenport tables, cedar chests, chairs and interesting articles.

In the home economics department, one will find exhibits illustrating the feeding, clothing and sheltering of the family and its members.

Among the many interesting projects found in the English classes will be found a unit on "Treasure Island," booklets on the "Merchant of Venice" and "Ivanhoe"; autobiographies of high school seniors; contract bulletins on "Macgeht," and many others.

The Spanish department will display booklets on Latin-American cities, stories of customs in Spanish speaking lands; maps, booklets of outside readings in Spanish and in English, covering customs, legend, history, geography, literature and international friendship.

These and many other interesting exhibits are presented to the patrons of the schools in order that they may see and learn about the work done in these institutions from day to day.

The faculty extends a very cordial invitation for all to attend.
